This is another civil action brought pro se by Dan Weese and Cheryl Sult-Weese. The court has granted plaintiffs leave to proceed in forma pauperis, in light of their indigence. (docket #4). Under the provisions of federal law, the court is required to dismiss any action brought in forma pauperis if the complaint is frivolous, malicious, fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, or seeks monetary relief from a defendant immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2). Other than its filing date, this lawsuit is essentially indistinguishable from plaintiffs' lawsuit that Judge Janet T. Neff of this court dismissed on March 5, 2015, for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. See Dan Weese, et al. v. Kalamazoo County Mental Health, et al., 1:15-cv-126 (W.D. Mich. March 5, 2015). Once again, plaintiffs' complaint against defendants is entirely conclusory and fails to allege facts sufficient to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

Conclusion

For the reasons stated by Judge Neff in her decision earlier this month, plaintiffs' complaint will be dismissed for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.
